One to One Mentoring Programme 2022
For emerging museum professionals

What?
- The Group for Education in Museums (GEM) offers a One to One Mentoring Programme for Museum Educators among NEMO members in 2022.
- Mentees will be supported and empowered by experienced GEM-Mentors, who are senior museum professionals.
- The programme includes 2-3 online sessions (60-90 minutes) for each mentee.

Who?
- 10 people connected to NEMO member organisations are eligible to participate in the Mentoring Programme in 2022 (5 in spring, 5 in autumn).
- We are looking for emerging museum professionals, museum educators, and people with a role in learning in the museum and heritage sector.

How and when?
- Apply until 6 March 2022.
- Send a motivation letter including your own experiences, understanding of your motives, strengths and your top 3 priorities for development (max. 1 page), CV & NEMO membership proof to office@ne-mo.org, subject line: Mentoring 2022.
- The mentoring sessions will take place between March – June 2022.

GEM
The Group for Education in Museums (GEM) is a thriving and vibrant membership network of over 850 institutional and personal members. The vision is of a connected and equipped community of people enabling learning across museum, heritage and cultural settings, creating inspiring experiences, relevant for everyone; that promote equality - transform and enrich lives.

NEMO
The Network of European Museum Organisations (NEMO) is an independent network of national museum organisations representing the museum community of the member states of the Council of Europe. NEMO ensures museums are an integral part of European life by promoting their work and value to policy makers and by providing museums with information, networking and opportunities for co-operation.

One of NEMO's key strategic missions is to ensure that museums are recognised as rich learning environments and places of public engagement, as well as providing a platform for the exchange of best practice, which resonates strongly with GEM’s own mission and vision.
