

NEMO's Capacity Building Activity

THE ENCATC Academy 2024 on sustainable cultural management and policy

"learn, co-create and share for sustainable futures"

Call for applications

The Network of European Museum Organisations (NEMO) is thrilled to invite you to apply for a training opportunity in cooperation with ENCATC in April 2024:

The 2024 edition of the ENCATC Academy takes place in Lille (France) from 22-25 April at Palais des Beaux-Arts.

Focusing on sustainable cultural management and policy, this educational activity aims to contribute to a climate-neutral and sustainable future. By enhancing knowledge, skills and competencies in the field of sustainable management and policy, by promoting exchanges, mutual learning and sharing of good practices, this 3-days educational program is designed for academics, researchers, artists, practitioners and policy makers from Europe and beyond. Six NEMO members will be selected for a travel grant and do not have to pay the Academy fee.

ENCATC ACADEMY 2024, LILLE, FRANCE

ENCATC and ENCATC Academy

ENCATC is the European network on cultural management and policy and represents, advocates, and promotes cultural management and cultural policy education, professionalizes the cultural sector to make it sustainable, and creates a platform for discussion and exchange at European and international level.

ENCATC has been creating and delivering academies for over 10 years, alongside local partners. The ENCATC Academy is the space for the cultural management and policy community come together for learning and adopting a new behavior as a professional and as a citizen.

NEMO

The Network of European Museum Organisations (NEMO) is an independent network of national museum organisations, museum networks, individual museums and museum-related businesses representing the museum community of the member states of the Council of Europe. NEMO ensures museums are an integral part of European life by promoting their work and value to policy makers and by providing museums with information, networking and opportunities for co-operation.

The selection process will be carried out by NEMO's executive board and the hosting organisation.
