

Call for participation of museum professionals from South and Central-Eastern Europe

Travel and Conference Grants for NEMO's European Museum Conference “Can we talk?

Museums facing polarisation”

10-12 November 2024 in Sibiu, Romania

NEMO - the Network of European Museum Organisations wants to encourage increased participation of museum professionals located in South and Central-Eastern Europe to join NEMO's next European Museum Conference to discuss the power that museums have to face polarisation and political pressure and how to build strong relationships with underrepresented groups and foster their representation.

NEMO offers 5 travel and conference grants (500 Euro lump sum travel support, including a free conference ticket) for museum professionals from South and Central-Eastern Europe* interested and active in the topic of cultural democracy, cultural/museum politics and community involvement with a strong commitment to European collaboration and international networking.

Interested in a grant? Please send us your CV and a short video (max 1,5 mins), telling us about yourself and your motivation to join the conference, plus presenting a proposal for a written article about the conference panel topics from your (museum's or region's) perspective leading up to the conference.

Please use a file transfer service (such as WeTransfer) to send your files to office@ne-mo.org.

Application Deadline: 9 September 2024

Questions and further information: Contact us at office@ne-mo.org or visit our website.

* please consult EuroVoc

The article should be written in English and should not exceed 1 page. It should be delivered 2 weeks after selection of candidates