

Call for Papers: Forum
for the conference "Future-oriented! Education for Sustainable Development in Museums
Federal Association of Museum Education e.V./ Bundesverband Museumspädagogik e.V.
Thursday and Friday, 28-29 October 2021
Online

Join in! Present your approaches in the context of Education for Sustainable Development. Report on your practical experiences and discuss them critically with the participants in one of our forums.

This can involve methodological-didactic concepts as well as strategies to make the work itself more sustainable:

a) Designing education and outreach in the context of Education for Sustainable Development

Here we are interested in questions such as:

What approaches and methods do you use to promote understanding of global and ecological interrelationships? How do you encourage reflection on current conditions as well as individual behaviour? How have you implemented sustainability strategies in your work?

b) Meaningful work on and with the Sustainable Development Goals

Here we are interested in questions such as:

How can SDGs be applied and implemented in the work with audiences? How can SDGs provide orientation for processes of self-reflection of education and outreach in museums?

We are also happy to receive further ideas for contributions or impulses for questions!

Please apply as soon as possible using the attached form, but no later than 30 June 2021!

Please note:

The organisers reserve the right to select the contributions. Speakers must register separately for the conference itself. The conference fee will be waived for them. The main part of the conference will be held in German.

The contribution will also be published in the magazine Standbein Spielbein 1/2022.

About the conference

Sustainability is a central theme of our time. But how present- and future-oriented is our educational work? What contribution do we make to a more just and environmentally conscious world? And: How can museums in particular initiate processes of awareness and change?

The conference will discuss in an international context the extent to which educational and outreach work in museums can be understood and designed in the sense of transformational education for sustainable development. It is about the further development of educational concepts as well as the concrete examination of the Sustainable Development Goals – in the work with the public as well as in the institution itself.
