1. Introduction

The Rules of Procedure of The Network of European Museum Organisations (NEMO) compiles in one document the issues related to the management and organisation of the network. These Rules of Procedure have been approved by the executive board on 29.10.2021.

2. Objectives of NEMO

- To advise all official EU authorities concerning matters of interest to museums and to promote their work with cultural heritage in Europe
- To inform European museums about museum-relevant EU initiatives, policies, and funding programmes
- To develop cooperation between museum organisations within the Council of Europe and similar organisations in other European countries and internationally
- To provide museums with information and opportunities for networking and cooperation
- To work with other cultural organisations in Europe to publicise common causes and objectives and to show how cultural activities can be strengthened by working together. It establishes links with relevant stakeholders to enable its members to work and prosper internationally.
- To involve itself with other matters of interest to museums within the EU, including cooperation between museums with respect to education and training of museum staff, procedures for exchange of exhibitions, digitisation in museums and staff as well as matters related thereto
- To train museum professionals to network and share best practice at all levels, building on their capacity and improving the service they offer to the public.

3. Executive Board

The Executive Board is made up of one Chairperson and up to six members.

3.1 Role of the Chairperson

The Chairperson takes the overall perspective on the function and direction of the network, including the internal and external environment in which the network operates.

The Chairperson is the official spokesperson for NEMO and can represent the network in official contact with institutions, funding bodies, national authorities and other networks. In this duty, the Executive Board and the Secretariat assist the Chairperson.

The Chairperson supports, guides and monitors the work of the Secretariat and acts as both member and elected head of the Executive Board.

3.2 Responsibilities of the Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Executive Board is responsible for the following duties:

- Meeting with relevant stakeholders and decision makers whose cooperation would help advance NEMO's strategy and mission
- Making necessary and consecutive decisions between Executive Meetings
- Guiding and exchanging views with the Secretary General on matters of interest on a permanent basis
- Actively seeking to widen the network, through new members, partners and projects
- Monitoring and preparing the network budget throughout the year
- Presiding over Executive Meetings and General Assemblies
- Summoning meetings and preparing the agenda along with the Secretariat for Executive Meetings and the General Assembly on behalf of the Executive Board

3.3 Role of the Executive Board

The Executive Board is the official leadership of NEMO and has the right to speak on behalf of NEMO Members as well as on behalf of the museums of their respective countries. The Executive Board can represent the network in official contact with institutions, funding bodies, national authorities and other networks.

The Executive Board is responsible for the continuous development of the strategic vision and mission of NEMO. It holds the ultimate responsibility for the legal and financial governance of NEMO and monitors the internal proceedings and rules of the network. In addition, it holds the right to appoint an Advisor with specific expertise in a particular field to aid the Executive Board in its duties regarding that particular field.

3.4 Responsibilities of the Executive Board

The Executive Board is responsible for the following duties:

- Meeting with relevant stakeholders whom NEMO wishes to influence and work with
- Making decisions that are needed between General Assemblies
- Monitoring and approving budgets and funding applications
- Actively seeking further financial support for the network
- Approving the membership of all prospective Members
- Deciding the fees for membership
- Convening the General Assembly, creating on the agenda and arrangements for the General Assembly along with the Secretariat
- Electing the chairperson of the executive board
- Hiring the secretary general
- Receiving and approving relevant documents including management accounts, annual reports and other relevant documents for its regular work meetings in a timely manner
- Appointing and overseeing whatever secretarial support or other staff it deems necessary

- Monitoring the work of the voluntary Working Groups of the network
- Regular reviews of the Secretary General's performance

3.5 Term, Eligibility and Election of the Executive Board

The term for all Executive Board Members, including the Chairperson is three years. They can stay for four consecutive terms maximum. The terms for both the Chairperson and other Executive Board Members can be altered only through a resolution at the General Assembly passed by a two-thirds majority of votes.

Members of membership categories a), b), c) are eligible to stand for election to the Executive Board. 4 members of the Executive Board must be made up of Full Members. Only a Full Member who is currently on the Executive Board is eligible to stand for election as Chairperson.

If a member of the executive board changes her/his professional position in a running term, she/he has to inform the Executive Board. The Executive Board will decide on the procedure until the next elections.

The election of all Executive Board Members takes place at the General Assembly. All Members are notified at least six weeks before the General Assembly and informed of any Election Board Member openings. Members from membership categories a), b), c) are allowed to nominate themselves or a representative from another Member Organisation of categories a), b), c) to stand for election. A picture, CV and statement of motivation from each candidate must be sent to the Secretariat at least two weeks before the election at the General Assembly.

If an Executive Board Member resigns before end of term, the position remains vacant until the next election at the General Assembly.

3.6 Executive Meetings

3-4 Executive Meetings are held each year. The Chairperson, other Members of the Executive Board and the Secretary General attend Executive Meetings.

The Secretariat along with the Chairperson organises and prepares the agenda for the Executive Meeting, the members of the executive board can contribute to the agenda. The Chairperson presides over the Executive Meeting and the minutes are taken by the Secretariat or an individual assigned by the Secretariat.

4. Membership Matters

4.1 Membership Eligibility

NEMO accepts

- Election to the Executive Board as Chairperson (Full members only)

There is no commercial return for members included in the membership.

4.3 Membership Requirements

Once the membership is established, the required membership and/or conference fees must be paid in due time. If members have not paid their membership more than 2 years in a row, the membership is automatically terminated.

Each member nominates one representative as their main contact through which NEMO communicates to the organisation. Other representatives may be appointed for different matters in relation with the membership. The name of the contacts will be confirmed annually.

Members give their mandate to the Executive Board to speak on their behalf.

4.4 Membership Voting Privileges

Elections for the Executive Board and other resolutions are made at the General Assembly. Only members having paid their annual fee have the right to cast a vote. Each member of the network is entitled to vote at the General Assembly as follows:

- Full members: 10 votes
- Network members: 3 votes
- Individual organisations: 1 vote
- Museum-related businesses: no vote

Each Member must appoint one representative who will vote at the General Assembly. The Contact Person from each Member must inform the Secretariat of the name of this representative at least two weeks before of the General Assembly.

Only members present in person at the annual general meeting (AGM) can cast their vote. In case of absence, members can mandate their vote through a proxy to another member participating at the AGM. Members present can only vote on behalf of a maximum of one other member organisation.

4.5 Membership Termination

To voluntarily terminate membership, the Secretariat must be notified by the Member at least one month before the end of the network year.

Membership can be terminated through a two-third majority of the total votes at the General Assembly. The Executive Board can suggest membership for termination if:

- The Member has ceased to meet the requirements of membership
- The Member has acted contrary to the statutes or bylaws of the network, or in case he/she injures the network in an unreasonable way

4.6 Membership Fees

The membership fees are proposed by the Executive Board and agreed upon with the General Assembly. The fees are collected annually from the members by the NEMO office.

The current and agreed membership fee scheme is published on NEMO's website.

5. General Assembly

The network in its entirety meets once a year at the General Assembly. If one-third of the total votes of Members request an extraordinary meeting to be held, it must be summoned at least two months following the request.

5.1 General Assembly Organisation

Each General Assembly is convened by the Executive Board by means of a written notification to all Members in due time.

The General Assembly is presided over by the Chairperson, or another Executive Board Member appointed by the Chairperson. Minutes are taken by the Secretariat, or an individual assigned by the Secretariat.

All resolutions at the General Assembly are passed by a simple majority of at least fifty-one per cent of votes cast. In the event of a tie, the Chairperson casts the deciding vote.

5.2 General Assembly Agenda

Members can propose topics for the agenda up to one month ahead of the General Assembly. Items to be considered may include:

- Election of Executive Board Members (if applicable)
- Annual report of the Executive Board, including financial affairs
- Short term and long-term strategy objectives and goals
- Decision about annual membership/conference fees and priorities of the network

The agenda of the General Assembly will be distributed to Members at least two weeks in advance.

6. Financial Affairs

The financial year of the network follows the calendar year.

6.1 Financial Resources

The Financial resources of NEMO are:

- Membership fees of the Members and/or Annual Conference fee
- Subsidies and other grants
- Acquisitions in consequences of inheritance gifts or legacies
- All other gains acquired

6.2 Annual Financial Report

The Executive Board will present the draft annual financial report at the General Assembly and make the final report available to Members upon request.

6.3 Refunds for Business Travel

NEMO covers accommodation, subsistence and travel expenses for Executive Board Members, the Secretariat, when needed and if financial capacities allow. This includes only travel expenses for Executive Meetings, General Assemblies and other events in which Members represent NEMO in an official capacity. NEMO also covers accommodation and travel costs for NEMO members, when representing NEMO in an official capacity.

7. Staff Issues

7.1 Role of the Secretary General

The Secretary General is responsible for the daily management and internal organisation of the network. Along with Executive Board Members, the Secretary General also acts as a chief external representative of the network.

The Secretary General shall be proposed and approved by the Executive Board. He/she shall be responsible to the executive board of how to carry out the tasks.

7.2 Responsibilities of the Secretary General

8. Amendment of Rules of Procedure

Changes to the Rules of Procedure can be proposed and adopted by the Executive Board.

9. Dissolution of Network

The network will be dissolved by a means of a resolution at the General Assembly. Such a resolution to dissolve the network must be passed by at least a two-thirds majority vote of the General Assembly.

10. Annex NEMO Working Groups

MEMO NEMO working group structure and functioning

(Adopted by the NEMO executive board on 23 June 2017)

STRUCTURE AND GOALS

- Working groups can be established on request of a NEMO member. The board must agree to the establishment of the working group. In addition, the Executive Board can decide upon the establishment of a working group if it sees the necessity for it. The work of the Working Group members and leaders is voluntary.
- Working group members must be NEMO members. A working group must at least have 3 members.

- The goal of a working group is to investigate a museum relevant topic/area on European level together and to add to the network's experiences and knowledge. The working groups operate under the mandate of the NEMO executive board.

FUNCTIONING

- Every working group is led by a working group leader. The task of the leader is to structure the goals, meetings, work processes and organisation and communication of the group. She/he is also the spokesperson of the WG towards NEMO office and board. Minutes of the meetings of the working groups must be shared with NEMO's office.
- Working groups must meet at least twice a year (digitally or in person).
- The working group leader is supported by a designated staff member of the NEMO office regarding organisational questions.
- The working group leader must report to NEMO office on a regular basis to be established with the designated staff member.
- An overall annual budget is assigned to the WG leaders to be administered by the leader in accordance with the office.
- The working group leaders report in person to the NEMO executive board once a year in connection to a joint meeting during NEMO's annual conference in order to align the WG's work and goals with the overall goals of NEMO.
- NEMO's executive board can mandate the working group leader to represent at events and meetings.

FINANCES

- The financial support to NEMO's Working Groups' activities (study visits, thematic meeting, investigations, and research) is agreed upon between the group leader and the office on the basis of a budget proposal. The support for NEMO's Working Groups is organized within the limits of NEMO's financial support through the EU.
