Societal relevance

We follow the social and political debate and have identified areas where we can have an impact.

Operational environment and strategic choices

1. We have considered how we can be relevant in society in the impact areas we have identified.

We build and evaluate our strategy and goals in line with democratic values and social equality.

We examine and assess our policies and services from different perspectives and develop our activities accordingly.

Actions and values

5. Our actions support and promote democratic development.

6. Our actions support and promote social cohesion, openness and tolerance.

7. Our actions support and promote equality, diversity, and human rights.

8. We choose socially, culturally and ecologically responsible funding sources, partners, and suppliers.
9. We actively engage in discussions on current topics in society.

10. We reach different parts of society with our communication and our message.

11. By following the social and political debate, we understand the viewpoints and concerns of different groups of people.

12. We have built sustainable connections with relevant groups and actors in society.

13. We are a reliable and fair partner in our partnerships and networks.

14. We have addressed and reflect diversity in our collections and collection policies.

15. We maintain an active dialogue both internally and externally about the history and composition of our collections.

16. We use our collections and knowledge resources actively in addressing current topics in society.
